Falmouth Food Coop Kitchen

Falmouth's February Feast from Falmouth Food Coop Kitchen is taking place at the Dracaena Centre this Sunday on the 23rd of February between 4 and 7pm and food served between 4pm and 5:30pm. Everybody can come and eat, filling up not just on food but also on the mental and social benefits of eating together. The feasts run on a pay-what-you-feel/ contribute-what-you-can basis. This could mean giving time, money, food or useful items — such as cutlery, crockery, water jugs. The FFCKitchen feasts are participatory events for everyone to join in and get involved with. Dogs on beaches this Summer

Forwarded by a member of the community:

Many people have shown concern over the controversial changes coming into effect this year, reducing the restrictions to dogs on beaches over the summer. There will be a review in October to see how these changes have been met by beach users. They will look at evidence of dog misbehaviour over this period. This can be reported to:

Oil Impasto Landscapes

with Joe Armstrong

Oil

Fri 29th May

10am - 4pm

£50

Joe uses a palette knife and incorporates loose flowing strokes of vibrant colour to create his distinctive impasto paintings on canvas. He will commence the workshop with a demonstration where you will get a feel for his technique; you will then be led through the various stages of creating a painting in his style. Joe will encourage you to open up and become comfortable creating your piece using a palette knife and a range of striking, vibrant colours.

Joe Armstrong grew up in London, and after working in advertising for a number of years, moved to Cornwall; he now paints professionally full time. Joe Armstrong is well-known in Cornwall where his large scale, colourful landscape paintings can be seen in galleries throughout the county. Joe paints outside as much as possible – you can sometimes find him painting around Cornwall during the Spring and Summer months, deep in a wooded valley surrounded by bluebells, or just sitting quietly painting on a hillside overlooking the sea.

Miranda Sykes
Friday 6th March.
7.30pm (doors 7.00pm)
Devoran Village Hall

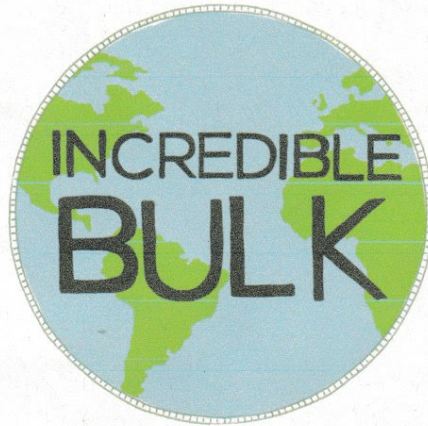

Miranda is the acclaimed singer and bassist with 'Show of Hands' and she is returning to her roots. After a career spanning over 20 years, during which time she has played with many of the top musicians and singers within the folk world, she is touring as she started out: one woman, one bass, and one guitar.

Building on the success of her 'Borrowed Places' tour, Miranda Sykes is back with a completely new project - 'Behind The Wall'. Where 'Borrowed Places' opened a window into the past, explaining where she had been, physically & spiritually, 'Behind The Wall' is a Roller Coaster Ride exploring where we are going, Miranda, you, me, all of us. What does it mean to be human today, living in our communities and societies and where will our actions lead us? A powerful and hard-hitting show, but also poignant & beautiful. The show gives us all a chance to reflect and maybe even empower us.

The image shows a black and white dog, likely a Springer Spaniel, jumping over a large, dark log on a sandy beach. The dog is in mid-air, with its front legs extended forward and its back legs pushing off the log. Its ears are flapping, and its mouth is open, showing its tongue. The background is a soft-focus view of the beach and the sea under a clear blue sky.

MURDER

set in the fabulous 1920's.

Sir Charles Waterman and his family are looking forward to a night to remember, but sadly, as it turns out, it will be for all the wrong reasons.

Comey, with a modicum of suspicion. The guests will have to unmask the killer or killers, whilst enjoying a 3-course dinner as the drama unfolds. A prize will be given for the group who successfully solve the conundrum. There will also be raffle prizes to be won and prizes for the best male and female 1920's costume.

Daler Rowney Acrylic Demonstration

with Jenny Aitken

Acrylic || Sun 15th March || 10:30-12:30am || £5

Jenny is also running a two day acrylics workshop on the 4th and 5th October if you want the chance to paint with this popular artist click here

This demonstration includes tea, coffee and biscuits, just help yourself on arrival! You will also receive 10% off purchases in the shop and the café for the day.

Hugely popular artist Jenny Aitken will introduce you to her signature style of painting using Daler Rowney acrylics. Help yourself to refreshments and settle down to watch Jenny work on vibrant Seascape paintings that capture impressionistic light and movement, offering you a chance to understand the process behind a finished piece. During the demonstration Jenny will share her approach to composition, colour mixing, brushwork and depth, with a special focus on atmosphere. Pick up tips on how to best tell a visual story, whilst watching Jenny methodically working through to a successful conclusion.

Jenny has exhibited all over the UK and won several awards, including Derbyshire Artist of the Year in 2008 and most recently, highly commended in The Artist 2019, and Festival Choice in the 2019 Buxton Spa prize. She is currently represented by several galleries, including highly regarded Harbour Gallery in Cornwall and Jarva Gallery in the Peak District. Jenny is a regular contributor to The Artist Magazine, having just finished a 12 month series on painting in acrylics.

She also produces videos for YouTube which support her magazine articles.
