ONE NIGHT. ONE BOX.

Could your family spend a whole evening, night and next morning living out of just one box? And if you did, what would you pack?

Why not find out by taking part in our fun new summer event, Beat the Box?

It's up to you where you spend the night and what you pack in the box. But remember – once it's packed, there's no going back for more. So choose carefully.

And of course, every penny your family raises will help provide life-saving support for another family who have no choice but to live out of a box – every night.
