What's on 2019

Pay once - get in free all year!!

Our acclaimed exhibition is extended until 5 January 2020. Examining the stories of the Titanic's momentous sinking on 15 April 1912, Titanic Stories re-appraises many of the myths, controversies and assumptions that still linger around one of the most well-known historic events of the 20th century.

TREVINCE

Happy New Year!

We hope you enjoyed our third Country House Christmas event in December and may we take this opportunity to wish you all a very happy, healthy and fun-filled 2019.

Talking of fun, we have some dates for your diary, for quite a few new (and relatively new) events at Trevince during the course of 2019:-

To lighten the month of February we are holding our first 'Opera at Trevince', taking place in the drawing room on Friday 8th February (only a few tickets left, so best to book as soon as you can - ticket link below)

Our gardens will formally open from the weekend of 29th, 30th and 31st March.

Our popular Garden Festival will take place over the weekend of 4th and 5th May.

If you haven't already, please sign up for our newsletters (via our website) for regular Trevince updates.
