Music from Devoran Acoustic Sessions

There is lots of great music coming up this year from Devoran Acoustic Sessions. Starting with Phillip Henry (Edgelarks & Gigsaner Big Band). Then Miranda Sykes and new pairing of John Spiers & Jackie Oates before the summer break

Phillip Henry
Saturday 1st February
7.30pm (doors 7.00pm)
Devoran Village Hall
£12.50

Following the success of his critically acclaimed 2018 solo album, True North, Phillip Henry returns to the road in 2020. His new show, Solo, continues to explore the virtuosic limits of his many instruments, from the 22-string Indian chatturangui, to the Dobro and National guitars that made his name. He will also bring his showstopping skill on the harmonica, with train impressions, boogie blues, and his trademark beatbox harmonica that never fails to get the party started.

A promotional poster for the Truro Netball Youth Camp. The background is a vibrant yellow and orange gradient with a green dotted line. On the right, there is a photograph of three young women in pink and yellow netball uniforms jumping to catch a white netball. The netball has 'NETBALL' and 'ENGLAND' written on it. In the top left corner, the 'NYC' logo is displayed in large, stylized letters with a red and yellow striped pattern, and below it, a red banner reads 'NETBALL YOUTH CAMP'. The main title 'Truro Netball Youth Camp' is in large white font, followed by 'Ages 11-14' in a slightly smaller white font. A circular badge with a black border and yellow background contains the text 'BOOK YOUR PLACE TODAY' in bold black letters. At the bottom, a red banner contains the event details in white text.
